Information regarding appeal procedures is available on the Indiana Board of Tax Review (IBTR) website located at www.in.gov/ibtr.

FILING DEADLINE: This petition must be filed not later than forty-five (45) days after the Notice of Action on Exemption Application is given to the taxpayer. If the county board has failed to act on an exemption application and it has been more than one hundred eighty (180) days since the filing date of the application, the owner may initiate an appeal to the IBTR.

ATTACHMENTS TO THIS PETITION: The following information must be attached to this petition.

1. A copy of the underlying Application for Property Tax Exemption (State Form 9284 / Form 136).

3. The petition must be signed by the owner or an attorney at law.

Multiple years or multiple parcels require separate petitions, except that a party may ask the IBTR for permission to file a single petition for multiple parcels where the parcels are contiguous and the issues to be appealed on each parcel are substantially similar.

FAILURE TO FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS: The Petitioner must complete all sections of this petition. If the Petitioner does not comply with the instructions for completing this form, the IBTR may return the petition to the Petitioner with a description of the defect. The Petitioner will then have thirty (30) days from the date of the notice of defect to cure the defect and file a corrected petition. If the corrected petition does not comply with the instructions for completing the form, the IBTR may deny the petition.
