Election Board meeting held in the Connie Lamar Room on January 4, 2024, started at 9:41 a.m. Brian Jones, Becky McClure, and Clerk Bruder all were present. Presentation by Commissioner Tim Beyer, on behalf of those persons advocating for a return to hand counted paper ballots. Party was allotted 15 minutes and Election board allowed additional time. Commissioner Beyer's presentation exceeded the 15 minutes allotted for presentation. Board refused to recognize additional speaker. When speaker refused to return to seat. Election Board recessed until able to proceed with Board business.

Board returns from recess and Board members all speak regarding their decision to continue using Microvote, and not paper ballots board confirms to continue resolution previously passed on this issue. Polling locations are agreed upon with the change of beginning on a Saturday at Town Hall instead of Whitestown Municipal. Board agrees to try changing location and dates for Primary; locations and hours are confirmed upon confirmation from locations. Brian Jones request Election Day only workers have the option to work half day only; board agrees and allows 1 per party per location. Election board discusses signage placement, this matter was put on hold until next meetings for further review.
